

Take Thou Authority: Positioned to Lead

And don't tell me that I have no authority to write like this. I'm perfectly free to do this—isn't that obvious? Haven't I been given a job to do? Wasn't I commissioned to this work in a face-to-face meeting with Jesus, our Master? Aren't you yourselves proof of the good work that I've done for the Master? Even if no one else admits the authority of my commission, you can't deny it. Why, my work with you is living proof of my authority! 1 Cor 9:1-2 MSG

Welcome from Our Connectional President

Welcome,
It is my pleasure to invite and welcome you to our Connectional Women in Ministry Quadrennial Conference as we focus on our leadership as women in ministry and the authority that we have been given as women called by God. It is our prayer that the worship services, workshops, chats, panel discussions with respect to our theme: "Positioned to Lead: Take Thou Authority," 2 Corinthians 9:1-2 will encourage women and men to examine our role, purpose and goals in the A.M.E. Church and in the realm of all that God is calling us to do in God's Kingdom. It is my hope that we will continue to lift each other up, share and fellowship with one another as we come together from across the 20 districts. I look forward to seeing you August 6-9, 2014 in Charleston, South Carolina.

Grace & Peace,
Rev. Kimberly L. Detherage, Connectional President

Workshops

Getting In Position

This Life Class will explore and discuss the importance of "positioning" and preparing to lead. It will encompass discussions about mentoring, building relationships and the importance of networking.

Leading Them Without Losing Me

This Life Class will explore and discuss the challenge, commitment and consummation of the leaders "self".

Take Thou Authority

This Life Class will address the leaders confidence, courage and commitment as it relates effectively in their ordination positions and authority in all places on all levels of the church.

Leading When You Are Not A Pastor

This Life Class will explore how the work of the non-pastoral leader translates into a greater work in the AME Church.

Haven't I Been Given A Job To Do— Strategic Planning

A discussion and examination on how we optimize our gifts and maximize the call to ensure the legacy and leadership of ordained women in the AME Church
